Hello, my name is Joe Pappas; I'm the CEO and founder of the National Organization for Women. I am also involved in the fight against the Zika virus, which affects a staggering 3% of the population. I'm excited to talk to you about how we can provide access to affordable health care for all. Women deserve to know they have health insurance, and we need to empower them to participate in their own health care decisions. We cannot allow these stories of healthcare loss and disruption to pass. By providing access to affordable health care, we can ensure that every woman has the opportunity to live a healthy and fulfilling life. Let me introduce you to the National Women's Health Network (NWWHN). NWWHN is a grass-roots organization that works to ensure that all women have access to the health care services they need. This is an outstanding moment in the history of our nation. The federal government has

Hello, and welcome. The best part about learning how to make pasta from scratch is in the process. I'll show you in a moment how you can make your own sauce for your delicious homemade pasta. This recipe calls for homemade ricotta, of course. But you can substitute it with ricotta cheese. Homemade Tomatoes and Pesto with Cashews
I can't guarantee you will receive these super moist, and fresh tomatoes, but it does help. One of the other reasons I absolutely love homemade pasta is the homemade pesto! This is a simple recipe. Here's how you make this homemade pesto using cashews, and how you can store it, in the refrigerator.
